- To allow you to participate in satisfaction surveys and other forms of market research, sweepstakes, contests and similar promotions, and to administer these activities. Some of these activities have additional rules, which may contain additional information about how Personal Information is used and shared;

How Do We Collect and Use Other Information?

“Other Information” is any information other than Personal Information that does not reveal your specific identity or does not directly relate to an individual. Examples of Other Information include browser information, information collected through cookies, pixel tags and other technologies, demographic information, and aggregated and de-identified data. We and our third-party service providers may collect and use Other Information in a variety of ways, including:

1. Your browser or device. Some information is collected by most browsers and/or through your device, such as your device type, screen resolution, operating system version, and internet browser type and version. We use this information to ensure our Sites function properly, for fraud detection and prevention, and security purposes.

2. Cookies. Cookies are pieces of information stored directly on your device. The cookies we use do not contain or capture unencrypted Personal Information. Rather, the cookies we use allow us to collect information such as browser type, time spent on our Sites, pages visited, Site preferences, and your relationship with us. We use the information for security purposes, to display information more effectively, to personalize your experience with our Sites, and to recognize your device to allow your use of our products and services. We also collect statistical information about the usage of our Sites in order to continually improve the design and functionality, to monitor responses to our advertisements and content, to understand how members and visitors use our Sites, and to assist us with resolving questions regarding our Sites. We also use cookies for advertising purposes, as described in the Advertising section of this Policy. You can refuse to accept these cookies, and most devices and browsers offer their own privacy settings for cookies. You will need to manage your cookie settings for each device and browser you use. However, if you do not accept these cookies, you may experience some inconvenience in your use of our Sites. For example, we will not be able to recognize your device and you may need to answer a security question each time you log on. You also may not receive tailored advertising or other offers from us that may be relevant to your interests and needs. You may also be unable to use certain services and features
3. Other Technologies. Other technologies include pixel tags, web beacons and clear GIFs used in connection with some Site pages, mobile app features, and HTML-formatted email messages to measure the effectiveness of our communications, the success of our marketing campaigns, to compile statistics about usage and response rates, to personalize your experience with us, for fraud detection and prevention, for security purposes, and for advertising as set forth in the Advertising section below.
4. Your IP Address: Your IP Address is a number that is automatically assigned to the device that you are using by your Internet Service Provider (ISP). An IP Address is identified and logged automatically in our server log files whenever you visit our Sites, along with the time of the visit and the page(s) visited. Collecting IP Addresses is standard practice and is done automatically by many websites. We use IP Addresses for purposes such as calculating Site usage levels, helping diagnose server problems, to personalize your experience while engaging with us online and offline, for compliance and security purposes, for administering our Sites, and for advertising as set forth in the Advertising section below.
5. Location Based Information: Our digital banking collects location data to enable push notifications and promotional offers even when the application is closed or not in use. If you use any location-based feature of mobile banking, you agree that your geographic location and other Personal Information may be accessed and disclosed through mobile banking. If you wish to revoke access to such information, you must cease using location-based features of mobile banking via your device's settings.
6. Google Analytics: Many websites and applications use Google services to improve their content. When they integrate Google services, these sites and applications share information with Google. We use Google Analytics to better understand how users are visiting and using our Sites. Google Analytics collects information such as how often users visit the Sites, what pages they visit when they do so, and what other sites they used prior to coming to our Sites. Google Analytics collects the IP address assigned to you on the date you visit our Sites, rather than your name or other identifying information. We do not combine the information collected through the use of Google Analytics with personally identifiable information. Although Google Analytics plants a cookie on your web browser to identify you as a unique user the next time you visit our Sites, the cookie cannot be used by anyone but Google. For additional information about how Google Analytics collects and processes data and how to control the information sent to Google, please refer to 'How Google uses information from sites or apps that use our services' at <https://policies.google.com/technologies/partner-sites>.

7. Personal information: When you interact with us through our Sites, we will not obtain Personal Information about you unless you choose to provide such information. Personal Information that we may collect about you through online interaction includes information that you provide, such as your name, mailing address, email address, phone number and other contact information; data resulting from your activity, such as transaction information; and limited location information (for example, a zip code to help you find a nearby ATM). We may also collect payment card information, social security numbers and driver's license numbers when you provide such information while using the online applications on our Sites.

We will correct any confirmed inaccuracies as necessary and appropriate.

How You Can Control Your Information

Our Sites are designed for optimal viewing with cookies enabled. For example, cookies store your preferences for when you visit our Sites. If your web browser settings allow cookies, our Sites will utilize them. You may disable or remove cookies by accessing your web browser settings. Our Sites will still function without cookies, but some features may not work properly. We do not monitor your online activities after you leave our Sites. We only use your Personal Information for certain purposes allowed by law, as set forth in this Policy and our Privacy Policy, which you cannot limit. You may, however, be able to opt out of certain advertisements. To learn more about a particular advertising network (including how to opt out), click on the industry group network symbol or link located on the advertisement.

Our Do Not Track Policy

Due to a lack of consistent standards across browsers, our Sites may not respond to “do not track” browser settings. As set forth above, we do not monitor your online activities after you leave our Sites. However, some third-party websites do keep track of Your browsing activities. If You are visiting such websites, You can set Your preferences in Your web browser to inform websites that You do not want to be tracked. You can enable or disable Do Not Track by visiting the preferences or settings page of Your web browser.

Our Web Linking Practices

We may provide access to information, products or services offered on websites that are owned or operated by other companies. We provide this access through the use of hyperlinks that automatically move you from our Sites to the third-party website.

While we do our best to provide you with helpful, trustworthy resources, we cannot endorse, approve or guarantee information, products, services or recommendations provided at any third-party website. Because we may not always know when information on a linked site changes, we are not responsible for the content or accuracy of any third-party website. We are not responsible for any loss or damage of any sort resulting from the use of a link on our Sites nor will it be liable for any failure of products or services advertised or provided on any third-party website.

We offer links to you on an "as is" basis. When you visit a third-party website by using a link on our Sites, you will no longer be protected by our privacy policy or security practices. The data collection, use, and protection practices of the third-party website may differ from the practices of our Sites. You should familiarize yourself with the privacy policy and security practices of the third-party websites that you visit, and not our policies and practices (unless otherwise disclosed to you).

Use of Online Surveys and Sweepstakes

Online surveys and sweepstakes are offered from time to time on our Sites. Online surveys are used so that we can gather information to better serve you. Based on the information you provide to us, we may inform you of Credit Union accounts and services available to you. You are not required to complete online surveys, sweepstakes or promotions. You should carefully review the rules of each sweepstakes or promotion in which you participate through our Sites, as they may contain additional important information about our use of your Personal Information. To the extent that the terms and conditions of each sweepstakes or promotion concerning treatment of your Personal Information conflict with this Policy, the terms and conditions of the sweepstakes or promotion will control.

For example, you may have authorized some third-party companies to access your Personal Information and account data to offer financial information and services such as account aggregation, making payments via a website or mobile application, and tax preparation. Because these third-party companies have access to your Personal Information and account data and may use your account sign in credentials in order to provide the service, we recommend you use caution when granting such access to third-party companies.

Some of these third-party companies may use other companies to assist them with providing services or with accessing your Personal Information or account data. Any one or all of these companies may be storing your Personal Information or account data. We are not responsible for the use or disclosure of any Personal Information or account data accessed by or on behalf of any company or person to whom you provide your OMNI Community Credit Union sign in credentials or account information. We do not control the privacy, security, or accuracy of your information that may be held by these third-party companies, which are governed by the third-party's privacy policy and data security program. We are also not responsible for any fees associated with these third-party services.

Except as may otherwise be required by law, when you provide your sign in credentials to your OMNI Community Credit Union accounts to a third party, you will be deemed by us to have authorized all transactions or actions initiated by that third party using the access information you provided, whether or not you are aware of the specific transaction or action. If you decide to revoke the access authority you previously gave to a third party, we strongly recommend that you change your OMNI Community Credit Union username and password to ensure that the party cannot continue to access your account(s). For security and other reasons, we specifically reserve the right to block or disable third-party access to any account without notice.
